Brandt, Verrada Realty, LLC

“Excellence is doing a common thing in an uncommon way.”

Hello, my name is Jodi Brandt and for me that is much more than a slogan it is my way of doing business. Finding uncommon ways to deliver excellence to each and every one of my customers. I have recently started my career as a Real Estate Agent, and am proud to be affiliated with Verrada Realty. I decided to get involved in the Real Estate industry because I grew up in a family owned construction business and have always been interested in new home construction, refurbishing, and renting. I have experienced that I find happiness through assisting other people. It brings happiness to both the person giving and the receiving. I find fulfillment in helping people and I want to see my clients satisfied with their Real Estate experience. My aim will always be to use my professional qualities to provide complete assistance in the home buying and selling process. That means listening carefully to every individual's needs and then working to fulfill those needs. I reside in the West Bend area with my husband, Dirk. I look forward to doing business with you.
